Currently Experience

I'm a senior Knowledge Graph Engineer at :probabl.ai with 15 years of experience

- 09.2024 – present :probabl. As a senior Knowledge Graph Engineer in the Professional Services branch of :probabl.ai, I am responsible for the expertise in semantic web technologies as well as the modelization of our client's knowledge. I contribute as well to the architecture of the tailored solutions we develop, and give trainings sessions.
- 01.2019 – 09-2024 Mnemotix As a Project manager and Semantic Web Expert, I supervise the unfolding of our projects, and design the knowledge graph structure used at the core of the systems we develop. I also give trainings, and participate in the dissemination of Mnemotix's achievements in research and development.
- 10.2017 – 12.2018 University of Bologna, Italy Short Term contract Researcher for the SCAR project; Development of a solution for analysing citations data within scientific literature mixing machine learning, NLP, and Semantic Web. Project in collaboration with Elsevier B.V (Amsterdam).
- 09.2015 – 12.2016 Université de Lille : Architect and Developer of automated solutions for multi-channel publishing (Web, Moodle, OpenEDX) of the mooc Culture Numérique.
- 11.2013 – 09.2015 Fuzzy Frequency, Digital art and web agency : Associated partner & full-stack developer for collaborative web applications (e.g file sharing app, projects sharing platform Makerscience), and webdocs and installations (e.g. Arte.tv Worldbrain).
- 12.2012 – 10.2013 Imagination for People : Technical coordinator and developer for the collaborative platform Imagination for People dedicated to the discovery and sharing of social projects.
- 01.2011 – 02.2012 Ecole Polytechnique Fédérale de Lausanne, EPFL : Postdoc researcher in the REACT team, Ontology modeling and collaborative software prototyping in the European Project ROLE focused on agile and responsive digital learning environments.
- 09.2007 – 10.2010 Institut National de Recherche en Informatique et Automatique, INRIA : Phd in the Wimmics team working on social tagging data analysis, Linked Data-based structuring, and Web services development. Thesis on Multi-points of view semantic enrichment of folksonomies \(slides\)

Technical skills

Semantic Web (RDF, RDFS, OWL, SPARQL, SHACL)	Python (Django, dataviz)	Web, Javascript
	Machine Learning	Git

Education

- 2007 – 2010 Université Nice Sophia Antipolis Computer Science PhD, Multi-point of view collaborative structuring of folksonomies (supervisors: Fabien Gandon and Michel Buffa)
- 2005 – 2007 Chalmers University of Technology MSc Applied Information Technology, specialized in Digital Arts and Interactive systems
- 2000 – 2005 Université de Technologie de Compiègne UTC Engineer Degree in Mechanics, specialized in Acoustics and Modelling

Language and other skills

English : fluent

Italian : fluent

French : native

Driving Licence (B)

Digital fabrication

3D modelling

Wood works and design

Occasional guitar player

DIY and free software

Teaching

2015 – 2016

Université de Lille Responsible for 2 classes : Database Introduction and Data journalism and Web development and CMS

2012

Les Petits Débrouillards One of the main french popular science NGO; tutoring for several workshops about Astronomy, Chemistry, and Physics.

2010

Université Nice Sophia Antipolis Laboratory for a Web 2.0 Technology class
